IN PREPARATION:

The Annual American Catalogue, 1896

THE ANNUAL AMERICAN CATALOGUE for 1896 will be issued as soon after the close of the year as possible. It will contain:

- (1) Directory of American Publishers issuing books in 1896.
- (2) Full-title Record, with descriptive notes, in author alphabet, of all books recorded in THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, 1896.
- (3) Author-, title-, and subject-index to same, in one alphabet.
- (4) Publishers' annual lists for 1896.

This volume forms the SECOND ANNUAL SUPPLEMENT to the AMERICAN CATALOGUE, 1890-95, now issuing.

The edition is printed from type and therefore is limited, and to secure copies orders should be sent at once. The price is $3.50 half leather, $3.00 in sheets; if ordered and paid for, before publication, the price will be $3.00 half leather, $2.50 in sheets.

We also supply the English Catalogue for 1896, as soon as ready, price $1.50, paper; the Annual American and English Catalogues, 1896, can be had in one volume, half leather, $5.00.

The Annual Literary Index, 1896

Including Periodicals, American and English, Essays, Book-Chapters, etc., Special Bibliographies and Necrology of Authors. Edited by W. I. FLETCHER and R. R. BOWKER, with the co-operation of members of the American Library Association and of the Library Journal staff.

THE ANNUAL LITERARY INDEX complements the "Annual American Catalogue" of books, published each year, by indexing (1) articles in periodicals published during the year of its issue; (2) essays and book-chapters in composite books; (3) authors of periodical articles and essays; (4) special bibliographies; (5) authors deceased; (6) index to dates of principal events during the year. The two volumes together make a complete record of the literary product of the year.

"Of great value to all who would keep advised of the topics and writers in the periodical literature of the day."—Universalist Quarterly.

"Good indexing could no further go."—The Nation.

NOTES IN SEASON.

GINN & Co will shortly publish a work entitled "Dante in America: an historical and bibliographical study," by Theodore W. Koch.

R. H. RUSSELL & SON have in preparation a volume entitled "Dr. Jameson's Raiders," by Richard Harding Davis.

THE HOME PUBLISHING CO. will publish January 15 a new novel by Archibald Claverling Gunter, entitled "Don Belasco of Key West."

MACMILLAN & Co. have in preparation another historical novel, entitled "A Haunt of Ancient Peace," by Mrs. Marshall, author of "The Master of the Musicians." The saintly George Herbert, his friend Nicholas Ferrar, and the striking personality of Dr. Donne are leading characters in the story. The book is suitably illustrated with views of the places or buildings mentioned. It offers pleasant reading for a Sunday afternoon and should be on the lists of every Sunday-school library.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, by arrangement with John Murray, of London, will publish early next year a copyright edition of "The Poetical and Prose Works of Lord Byron," edited by Byron's grandson, the Earl of Lovelace. The text will be collated, so far as possible, with the original manuscripts and revised proofs, which are still in existence, and will be augmented with many hitherto unpublished additions. The possession of this material, which is now undergoing a most careful and minute collation, will enable Mr. Murray to lay before the public for the first time an authentic and genuine text of Byron's works. It is claimed that the collation has proved that all other texts are corrupt and imperfect; it also throws a curious light on Byron's methods of working, and on the brilliant and remarkable additions and interpolations which he was in the habit of making after the poems were printed, and in some cases even after they were published. Several new poems and fragments will appear for the first time in this new edition. The already published letters have been corrected, omitted names and passages have been restored, many letters which Moore was unable to insert sixty years ago, and many others which he never saw, will be included in the series. Not only the letters and materials collected by the late Mr. Murray during upwards of fifty years, but also other documents and correspondence in the possession of Lord Lovelace, will add to the value of this definitive edition of Byron's works.

THOMAS NELSON & SONS have just ready a useful aid in the study of the Bible, entitled "The Illustrated Bible Treasury," containing articles on "Monumental Testimony to the Old Testament," "History and Chronology of the Nations of the Bible," and "The History of the Patriarchs," by Dr. Sayce, the eminent Assyriologist; "Topography of Bible Lands," by Major Condor; "The Historical and Physical Geography of Palestine," by Prof. G. Adar Smith; "The Crossing of the Red Sea," by Dr. E. Naville; analysis of the books of the Bible, by eminent English and American Biblical scholars; hints on Bible study, by Dr. John Hall, of New York, Dr. Peloubet, and Rev. Richard Lovett; essays on the language of the Bible by Canon Isaac Taylor and Prof. Rendel Harris; a "Life of Jesus," by Dr. W. Ewing; a "Dictionary of Jewish Antiquities"; a "Concordance or Dictionary of Scripture Proper Names," diacritically marked for their pronunciation with meaning; subject index, etc., by Prof. Ira M. Price, D.D., of Chicago, with upwards of 10,000 references to the Revised Version placed side by side with the passages, according to the King James's Version, and other articles, the whole apparatus being edited by Dr. William Wright. Every article is fully and authoritatively illustrated; and 12 fine colored maps prepared by Major Condor, Major-Gen. Wilson, and others, form a special attraction. "The Bible Treasury" is sold separately, bound in Oregon seal, limp, and is bound up with their new series of bold-type Bibles.

WEEKLY RECORD OF NEW PUBLICATIONS.*

The abbreviations are usually self-explanatory. c. after the date indicates that the book is copyrighted; if the copyright date differs from the imprint date, the year of copyright is added. Books of foreign origin of which the edition (annotated, illustrated, etc.) is entered as copyright, are marked c. ed.; translations, c. tr.; n. p., in place of price, indicates that the publisher makes no price, either net or retail, and quotes prices to the trade only upon application.

Emerson, G. H., D.D. Life of Alonzo Ames Miner, S.T.D., LL.D. Bost., Universalist Publishing House, 1896. 16+555 p. por. il. O. cl., $2. [4850]

Dr. Miner, a leading and revered minister of the Universalist church and for fifty years pastor of the Old School Street Church, Boston, died in Boston, June 14, 1895. He was born in Lempster, Sullivan Co., New Hampshire, Aug. 17, 1814. His life given in this volume is the story of one who put duty and principle before everything; who spent his strength and talents in fighting wrong and reforming the weak and vicious.

Guerber, H. A. The story of the Romans. N. Y., American Book Co., [1896.] c. 288 p. maps, il. D. (Eclectic school readings.) cl., 60 c. [4855]

An elementary history of Rome, intended for very young readers, related as simply and directly as possible. The aim is not only to instruct but to interest school-children, and to enable them, as it were in play, to gain a fair idea of the people and city of which they will hear so much; the book is also planned to serve as a general introduction to the study of Latin, which most pupils begin before they have had time to study history.

Jesuit (The) relations and allied documents: travels and explorations of the Jesuit missionaries in New France, 1610-1791; the original French, Latin, and Italian texts, with English translations and notes; ed. by Reuben Gold Thwaites. [In about 60 v.] V. 1, Acadia, 1610-1613. Cleveland, O., The Burrows Bros. Co., 1896. c. 15+319 p. fac-similes and maps, O. cl., subs., net, $3.50. (Limited to 750 sets.) [4859]

The complete reissue of the "Jesuit relations," of which this is the first volume, will include the full collection of Jesuit reports, letters, and records issued from 1610 to 1791, and gathered from the archives of European and American libraries. The "Relations" are given in the original version, accompanied, page by page, by an absolutely authoritative English translation. The first volume covers the labors of the Jesuits in Acadia from 1610-1613, as shown in eight of the earliest Jesuit letters and reports. The general editor of the work, Reuben Gold Thwaites, secretary of the State Hist. Soc., of Wisconsin, supplies a short general preface, a full historical introduction, and a number of notes—biographical, geographical, and bibliographical. Fac-similes of the title-pages of the original editions of the letters, two original maps, and a detailed historical map of New France are given in this volume. One volume a month is to be issued until the work is complete.

Krehbiel, H. E. How to listen to music: hints and suggestions to untaught lovers of the art. N. Y., C. Scribner's Sons, 1896. c. 15+361 p. il. S. cl., $1.25. [4862]

Discusses the popular ignorance of music, with examples of blunders by Tennyson and other great men of letters. Explains in a simple manner melody, harmony, and rhythm; illustrates how identification of melodic elements enables a listener to recognize the unity of a symphony. Absolute music, chamber music, classic and romantic music are then defined and exemplified. An elaborate inquiry follows as to how far music can be delineative. The modern orchestra is then studied, the nature, capacity, and characteristics of each instrument being set forth and depicted. Next are considered the forms of music for an orchestral concert, a pianoforte recital, at the opera, and at a choral concert. Concludes with a study of the relations between musician, critic, and public. Author is musical editor of the New York Tribune.

"This is the first attempt which has been made to present English readers with a concise account of the history of the four Balkan states. Yet the Balkan Peninsula has been in modern times what the Low Countries were in the Middle Ages—the cockpit of Europe. It is there that the eternal eastern question has its origin; it is there too that the west and the east, the cross and the crescent, meet. But it is impossible to understand the great problems, which still await solution in southeastern Europe and are once more pressing themselves upon the attention of all thoughtful men, without some knowledge of Balkan history."—Preface.

Monroe, Harriet. John Wellborn Root: a study of his life and work; with etchings and drawings by C. F. W. Mielatz, and facsimiles of designs by Mr. Root. Bost., Houghton, Mifflin & Co., 1896. c. 9+291 p. por. O. cl., net, $6. [4869]

Mr. Root was a highly successful American architect, whose genius was displayed in the designs of many American buildings. His field of labor centred in Chicago, his genius reaching its fullest expression in the general plans for the structures of the Exposition of 1893. His relative, Miss Harriet Monroe, the poet-laureate of the Exposition, tells the interesting story of his life, having made free use of his essays, after-dinner speeches, letters, and other papers.

An amusing method of telling fortunes by cards, said to have come from the Egyptians, through Roman sources. First disclosed by a gypsy to Mr. Robert Antrobus, a gentleman of Bath, who made the details into a book, which was printed for private circulation in England some time before 1740. The work, long out of print, is not even to be found in large libraries, though it is said a copy does exist in a private library in the United States.

Wilson, Woodrow. George Washington; il. by Howard Pyle, Harry Fenn, and others. N. Y., Harper, 1897 [1896.] c. 9+333 p. por. D. cl., $3. [4885]

This new biography of Washington and new history of America in Washington's time has been a serial in Harper's Magazine during the year. It describes Washington as surveyor, soldier, statesman, in public life and in private, and gives an exhaustive account of the final overthrow of the French dominion on American soil, the culmination of the colonial era, the Revolutionary War, and the establishment of the republic on the firm basis of constitutional law—in all of which Washington's was the guiding hand. The illustrations add greatly to the interest of the valuable text. The author is now professor of history at Princeton.

The Publishers' Weekly.

FOUNDED BY F. LEYPOLDT.

DECEMBER 26, 1896.

The editor does not hold himself responsible for the views expressed in contributed articles or communications.

Books for the "Weekly Record," as well as all information intended for that department, must reach this office by Tuesday morning of each week.

Publishers are requested to furnish title-page proofs and advance information of books forthcoming, both for entry in the lists and for descriptive mention. An early copy of each book published should be forwarded, as it is of the utmost importance that the entries of books be made as promptly and as perfectly as possible. In many cases booksellers depend on the WEEKLY solely for their information. The Record of New Publications of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY is the material of "The American Catalogue" and so forms the basis of all trade bibliography in the United States.

"I hold every man a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help and an ornament thereunto."—LORD BACON.

AT THE TURN OF THE YEAR.

AN eventful and remarkable year, in business as well as in politics, is about to come to an end. When it opened, an international complication was impending that stirred the minds of the people and seriously intimidated investors. Following closely upon this disturbing factor came the opening of the Presidential campaign, with its vexed problems and uncertainties, that for a time paralyzed almost completely every branch of trade. All through the year the uprising in Cuba has affected, more materially than is generally understood, certain lines of trade, especially in the South. Capitalists, and financiers in general, were naturally cautious in their business undertakings while the country was ringing with rumors of war, and, later, when it was unsettled whether possible profits might be paid to them in a depreciated currency, and whether possible losses might be claimed from them in gold. The general suspension and the consequent putting off of all but the most pressing transactions was felt by all business men, and especially by the retailers in all branches of trade.

The book trade had its share of suffering, but, compared with some trades, held its own remarkably well, and has already rebounded since the public mind has been quieted and made easy by a prospective return of better times. Travellers report business reviving, not with great leaps, but in a steady, normal way, that insures business faith and that will encourage enterprise in good season. Many of the large book-stores in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and Chicago are reported very busy, and the general tone is hopeful all along the line. The holiday season, of course, accounts for much of this "spurt" in the book trade, but the publishers this year have shown such excellent discretion in their choice of publications, that the great bulk of this year's output of books is bound to sell for some time to come, by reason of its intrinsic and enduring merit.

The political and social conditions of the day influenced a large class of literature, some of which is of course of ephemeral importance, but much of which was presented in enduring, literary style. To the department of literature and fine arts, and literary biography, many volumes were added that need only time to mature into standards. The publishers have put much of their strength into good editions of standard books, many of them furnished with critical apparatus of permanent value, by learned and competent editors, and nearly all of them brought out in attractive styles, at reasonable prices.

This feature of publishing cannot fail in time to educate a buying reading public. Such a public must grow year by year; and in the end the makers of books will find that the publishing of literature just a little beyond the intellectual demand of the reader will insure far more reliable and enduring business than catering to the fads and idiosyncrasies of the hour.

The outlook is decidedly more encouraging at the close of the year than it was at the beginning, and we trust that with 1897 will begin a Happy New Year.

WHAT SCIENTIFIC PUBLICATIONS MAY BE IMPORTED FREE OF DUTY.

THE officers of the customs have lately been prodded up by the Treasury Department to observe more narrowly the purport of paragraph 410 [of the Free List] of the act of August 28, 1894, which reads as follows: "Books, engravings, photographs, bound or unbound, etchings, music, maps, and charts which shall have been printed more than twenty years at the date of importation, and all hydrographic charts and scientific books and periodicals devoted to original scientific research, and publications issued to their subscribers by scientific and literary associations or academies, or publications of individuals for gratuitous private circulation, and public documents issued by foreign governments."

It having been represented to the Department that books and periodicals not strictly "devoted to original scientific research" were admitted free under too broad a construction of paragraph 410, the Department accordingly notified officers of customs that the terms of the law must be more strictly observed.

The Solicitor of the Treasury advises the Department that in his opinion the words "scientific books and periodicals devoted to original scientific research" relate to new discoveries in the field of science, and do not include textbooks, compilations, and discussions of scientific subjects already understood. This construction of the law is concurred in by the Department.

QUESTIONABLE METHOD OF NEWSMEN TO PROTECT THEMSELVES.

A SITUATION of extreme interest to advertisers and publishers of magazines has been developed during the past few weeks. There have been for years a number of agencies which make it a business to secure subscriptions to magazines. They issue annually, about this time of the year, club offers which are printed in a large number of magazines and other publications, and which give the reader the privilege of subscribing for one or a number of magazines, there being usually a lump price per year for a group of the leading publications.

A great deal of bitter feeling has been brewing among the newsmen for some time on account of the competition of these subscription agents. This feeling seems now to have culminated in acts committed by individual newsmen here and there, but which are hardly likely to be approved by the newsmen as a class.

In copies of certain magazines for sale on the news-stands in Chicago, for example, every leaf among the advertising pages containing announcements of subscription agencies has been cut out before being exposed for sale to magazine buyers. The same thing has occurred in other places—in San Francisco, for instance, as well as in such small towns as Ballston Spa, N. Y. In cutting out these sheets the advertisements of innocent general advertisers printed on the same page or on the reverse side of the sheet are, of course, also destroyed.

The advertising rates are naturally based on the supposed benefit resulting from the appearance of an advertisement in every copy of a publication mailed to subscribers or sold to buyers at news-stands. In the case of copies mailed by the publisher of a magazine to a subscriber there can, of course, be no meddling with the advertising pages, as the publication reaches the party addressed without being handled by a newsdealer. When it is considered, however, that the news-stands' sale of many magazines is considerably larger than the circulation by mail, it will be seen how important the matter is to an advertiser who may be using space on one side of the leaves which the newsdealers consider objectionable.

Demands for allowance have already been made by one advertising agency on behalf of some of its customers, and the outcome of the matter is watched with considerable interest.

DEARTH OF BOOK-STORES IN JAPAN.

SIDNEY CROSS writes to The Bookbuyer, from Yokohama: "There is a famine in Yokohama of new books in English, and of new periodicals. One would suppose that in such a city as Yokohama, with its European and American contingent of over two thousand residents, there would be a well-furnished book-shop, with all the latest publications for sale. Such is not the case, however, and to any one contemplating the trip here, I must say, bring your own books and magazines, and bring plenty of them. You will never have enough, and when you have done with them they will gladden the eyes of many book-hungry residents who have to depend upon the club-library, or what the mails bring them from home.

"The only English book-shop in Yokohama is that of Kelly & Walsh, who also do a general business in tobacco, cigars, musical instruments, stationery, and fancy goods of all kinds. Subscriptions are received there, presumably, for any of the English or American periodicals, and orders may be left for any book desired, but there is no attempt to keep anything like a fresh stock of current literature, or to keep the current numbers of periodicals on sale. Doubtless the supply is adjusted to the general demand, but the casual customer is sadly disappointed to find so restricted a selection of books not of recent date, local publications on Japan, China, and Korea, maps, guide-books, conversation-books, and dictionaries. There are a few French novels in yellow paper covers.

"There are two other book-stores in Yokohama, kept by Japanese. The best one is Jiujiya's, on the Motomachi Yato, up the hill behind the French Consulate. Here one may or may not find—according to his luck—something to read. It is hardly a legitimate book-store, for every book in it is second-hand, and generally supplied for a pittance by the hotel-boys, who gather for their own profit the volumes left behind by the transient guests. But at Jiujiya's only can a variety of reading-matter be found, and he is as polite as all Japanese shopkeepers are. Jiujiya's is, in a measure, a circulating library, inasmuch as he will allow a small amount for books returned, when new ones are purchased.

"The smallest shop of the three, Maruya's, is on the Benten dori, one of the principal shopping streets in Japanese town. This one is essentially a native store, and the few volumes in English are of but little moment and of ancient date. But it is picturesque, and the stock is arranged with an eye to color, and the attendant clerks are always eagerly civil. Here can be found a large variety of the books in Japanese, printed on crinkled crape paper, with illustrations by native artists.

"To those about to travel west as far as this I would repeat: Bring your own books and magazines, and bring plenty of them. Leave your address with your favorite bookseller at home and let him send you by mail, weekly or monthly, the volumes he knows will please you. Even if they do not all come up to your standard, you will be grateful for them, and your possession of them will bring you many envious friends as borrowers."

ADVERTISING BAD DEBTS NOT LIBELLOUS.

THE WINGATE EXCHANGE, of Lewiston, Me., is a collection agency, which, in order to collect bad bills, has adopted the plan of posting printed lists of the names of such debtors as they were unable to collect from, together with the amounts due, in various public places, telegraph poles and the poles of trolley lines being most frequently selected. C. V. Vincent's name was so posted for a debt which had been sued upon but which officers were unable to collect on execution. Mr. Vincent brought suit to recover damages. The jury brought in a verdict for the defendant.

COMMUNICATIONS.

THE WHARTON & BARRON PUB. CO. DID NOT REPRINT "BESIDE THE BONNIE BRIER-BUSH."

BALTIMORE, Dec. 21, 1896.

To the Editor of The Publishers' Weekly.

SIR: You published an article in your last publication under the head of "The Reprinters of 'The Bonnie Brier-Bush' Enjoined." We wish to say that we did not publish an edition of this book, and simply sold a few copies of another publication other than that of Dodd, Mead & Co., although we have always kept their books in stock, too. Our counsel, with our consent, agreed to the decree restraining us from selling any other publication of "Beside the Bonnie Brier-Bush" other than that of Dodd, Mead & Co. We just simply wish to correct you as to the statement that we have reprinted the book. This we have never done.

Very truly yours,

THE WHARTON & BARRON PUB. CO.

OBITUARY NOTES.

Z. F. RILEY, the veteran bookseller, of Topeka, Kan., died December 6. He was sixty-six years of age, and had lived in Topeka many years. Mr. Riley had been prominently connected with literary work and organizations during his residence in Topeka.

EDWARD HALE BIERSTADT died at his home at Summit, N. J., December 19. Mr. Bierstadt was a son of Edward Bierstadt, and was born in New Bedford, Mass., January 4, 1857. He was well known as a lover and collector of books, and was treasurer of the Grolier Club for one or two terms. In this position he took the most earnest and energetic interest in the preparation of the club's sixteenth and seventeenth century bibliography. He possessed a valuable private library. Among his individual labors in the field of book-lore is a Whittier bibliography. He also did, perhaps, the greater part of the work on the bibliography of Lowell, which has been prepared by the Grolier Club.

WILLIAM ADAMS, for years the active partner of the firm of Beadle & Adams, of New York, died in Brooklyn, N. Y., December 19. He was stricken with paralysis at his office in William Street, New York City, on December 4, and did not recover. Mr. Adams was born in New York City, October 17, 1838, and while a young man became a member of the firm of Beadle & Adams. His firm was formed by E. F. Beadle, who removed to New York from Buffalo in 1859. Mr. Beadle began his apprenticeship in the book business with H. & E. Phinney, of Cooperstown, N. Y., whom he left, in 1847, to open a book-store of his own in Buffalo. In 1852 Mr. Beadle began the publication of The Youth's Casket, for young people, and in 1856 he began The Home, a periodical for grown-up people. In 1859 Mr. Beadle, with his brother, came to New York to continue his periodicals and to begin the issue of a series of popular books. Mr. Adams was identified with the firm from its beginning in this city, and, in a short time, was admitted to partnership. The firm were the pioneers of cheap fiction for young people, upon which, especially upon the yellow-covered Beadle's Dime Novel Series, the reformers of that day heaped a lot of gratuitous and undeserved abuse, though, as a matter of fact, its books were less harmful than much of what now passes as fit for circulation in Sunday-school libraries. Mr. Beadle retired from business in 1889, since which time Mr. Adams was the sole proprietor. Mr. Adams was unmarried, and is survived by only one brother, Harry Adams, ex-County Treasurer of Kings County. Mr. Adams was widely known as one of the most enthusiastic and efficient promoters of Sunday-schools in Brooklyn.

NOTES ON CATALOGUES.

TEMPLE SCOTT'S "Book Sales of the Year" will in future be published by George Bell & Sons, London. The volume for 1896, which will include special features of bibliographical value, will be ready for subscribers some time early in February. In addition to the notes and introduction the book will be supplied with two indexes—one under authors' names, and another under subjects with author headings.

ELIOT STOCK, London, will publish at once the tenth volume of his "Book-Prices Current," containing the sales of 1896. It will comprise several new features, which have been introduced in order to render the work more useful, particularly to collectors and booksellers. Among these may be mentioned a subject index, explanatory notes on some of the more interesting entries, and the collation of many of the books referred to. The introduction, also, will be much fuller than in the former volumes.

CATALOGUES OF NEW AND SECOND-HAND BOOKS.—Carnegie Library, Pittsburgh, Pa., Descriptive list of some old books and MSS., some fine editions and fine bindings, and some books on printing. Exhibited November 5 to December 31. (97 titles.)—William Evarts Benjamin, 10 W. 22d St., New York, Autograph letters. (No. 79, 16 p. sq. 8°.)—J. B. Lippincott Co., Philadelphia, A banquet of new books. Handsomely illustrated catalogue of new books recently published by J. B. Lippincott Co. (32 p. 16°.)—S. F. McLean & Co., 44 E. 23d St., N. Y., Miscellaneous book bargain list. (December, 1896, 258 titles.)—W. Muller, 1 Star Yard, Carey St., London, W. C., Economics, banking, labor, and social questions. (No. 6, 452 titles.)—Subscription News Co., 47 Dey St., N. Y., Trade list of newspaper, magazine, and other periodical literature. (64 p. nar. 8°.)—S. Zickel, 129 Duane St., N. Y., Illustrirter Weihnachts-Katalog, 1896. (94 p. 4°.)

BUSINESS NOTES.

BOZEMAN, MONT.—J. H. Taylor, bookseller, has made an assignment.

CHICAGO, ILL.—Way & Williams, publishers, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Way retires, and the business will be continued by Mr. Williams.

CINCINNATI, O.—Forshee & McMakin, book agents, have dissolved partnership.

DELAVER, WIS.—E. M. Gates, bookseller, has sold out to E. F. Williams.

JANESVILLE, WIS.—King & Skelly, booksellers, have been succeeded by R. W. King.

NAPERVILLE, ILL.—The firm of J. L. Nichols & Co., recently reported as having been incorporated to publish books, etc., has been fully organized as a company, with a capital of $60,000.

PONTOTOC, MISS.—Johnston, Fontaine & Co. have opened a new drug-store. They will carry a full line of books and stationery.

SALESBURY, ILL.—Carey & Wing will succeed, on January 1, to the Carey Book-Store. The firm is composed of Mrs. Carey, widow of Francis Carey, and Mr. Alva T. Wing.

SIOUX CITY, IA.—The J. M. Pinckney Book and Stationery Company is in charge of a representative of the First National Bank, which holds a chattel mortgage on the stock and fixtures. For twenty-six years this business has been carried on at its present location.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—In another week the book-store of Robert Beall, on Pennsylvania Avenue, will be a thing of the past. Most of the stock has already fallen under the hammer of the auctioneer, and the balance will go rapidly.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

A BOOK-STORE has just been opened in Tientsin, China, under the name of Si-sio-schn-Kiej (Western scientific book-store), which will make a specialty of translations of English scientific books, and of maps and atlases.

GEORGE ALLEN, London, will have ready early in January "The Literary Year-Book, 1897," edited by Frederick G. Aflalo. The work is described as "an exhaustive book of reference for all writers and readers of books," and will contain, among other features, a critical résumé of the past year's literature by Ernest Rhys, and portraits and biographical sketches of a number of distinguished authors.

KEGAN PAUL & Co. have just ready W. Y. Fletcher's "Foreign Bookbindings in the British Museum," a sequel to the "English Bookbindings," which was published a year ago. The volume contains 65 illustrations, with descriptions, of the interesting examples of the Byzantine, Italian, French, German, Dutch, and Spanish bindings preserved in the Museum. The edition is limited to 500 copies. The reproduction of the bindings has been undertaken by Wm. Griggs, chromo-lithographer to the Queen. The examples are all chosen on account of their beauty or historical interest.

D. APPLETON & Co. will publish almost at once Prof. G. Maspero's important new work, "The Struggle of the Nations—Egypt, Syria, and Assyria." This is a companion volume to "The Dawn of Civilization," and contains the history of the ancient peoples of the East from the XIVth Egyptian Dynasty to the end of the Ramesside period. This interval covers the sojourn of the Israelites in Egypt and their exodus therefrom. The recent discovery of an Egyptian Stele mentioning the Israelites gives special interest to this volume, where the matter is discussed with his usual acumen by the author.

A YOUNG woman calling herself Mrs. O. H. Carter, and claiming to represent the Society of Christian Endeavor of New Brunswick, made several unsuccessful attempts to victimize Trenton (N. J.) merchants on the 19th inst. At Stoll's book-store she purchased thirty Bibles and, ordering them sent to New Brunswick, tendered a check for $45 in payment, and asked for the $15 change in cash. This was refused. Mrs. "Carter" offered checks to several other merchants, but, so far as is known, her efforts to obtain cash in change failed. Booksellers in New York and vicinity are warned to be on the lookout for this Mrs. "Carter."

THE SOCIÉTÉ BELGE DE LIBRAIRIE, of Brussels, has just published a "Pastoral Theology," written by the Rev. Dr. Stang, vice-rector of the American College, Louvain, and professor of pastoral theology, late rector of SS. Peter and Paul's Cathedral, Providence, Rhode Island. The work is the first book on pastoral theology in the English language, and while it will be especially valuable to the young ecclesiastic, whom the author, through this work, introduces clearly and concisely into the practical work of pastoral and missionary life, it will also prove suggestive and helpful to the priest of wider experience. The American trade will be supplied by Benziger Brothers, of New York, Cincinnati, and Chicago.

G. P. PUTNAM'S SONS have just ready an illustrated edition of Abram C. Dayton's "Last Days of Knickerbocker Life in New York," written in 1871 and published in 1882, which is now presented with carefully selected illustrations that will help to preserve pleasing and picturesque memories of an interesting transition period in the history of New York City. "The Story of the Balkans (Roumania, Bulgaria, Servia, and Montenegro)," by William Miller, is the new volume in The Story of the Nations Series, a most interesting exposition of the great problems which still await solution in southeastern Europe, where the eternal Eastern question has its origin. A volume of poems of cheerful tone, by Belle Gray Taylor, is entitled "Captive Conceits," and is neatly gotten up in red and gold.

EDWARD ARNOLD, New York, will publish shortly Dr. Donaldson Smith's narrative of his exploration in the territory between Somaliland and Lake Rudolph, which had to be deferred in consequence of some delay in completing the scientific observations on the results of the expedition by Dr. Gregory, Dr. Günther, Dr. Karl Jordan, and Mr. Pocock; a translation by Lady Herschell, the wife of the Liberal Lord Chancellor, of Louis Paulian's interesting and entertaining work, "Paris Qui Mendie—les vrais et les faux pauvres," which will be published under the title of "The Beggars of Paris"; and "Fifty Suppers," by Col. Kenney Herbert, which will be a companion volume to his popular little works on "Dinners" and "Breakfasts and Lunches." The second volume of The Sportsman's Library, of which Sir Herbert Maxwell is the editor, will be Colonel Thornton's "Sporting Tour Through the Northern Parts of England, and Great Part of the Highlands of Scotland." This work was published in 1804 and has never been reprinted, though readers of old sporting literature have delighted in its shrewd observations on society and manners, and its graphic descriptions of shooting, hawking, and angling. In this edition the old illustrations will be reproduced, and be supplemented by reproductions of other scarce engravings, and by new colored plates by G. E. Lodge.

AUCTION SALES.

[We shall be pleased to insert under this heading, without charge, advance notices of auction sales to be held anywhere in the United States. Word must reach us before Wednesday evening, to be in time for issue of same week.]

DECEMBER 28, 3 P.M.—Autographs and many unpublished muster-rolls. (331 lots.)—Bangs.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Under the heading "Books Wanted," subscribers only are entitled to a free insertion of five lines for books out of print, exclusive of address (in any issue except special numbers), to an extent not exceeding 100 lines a year. If more than five lines are sent, the excess is at 10 cents per line, and amount should be enclosed. Bids for current books and such as may be easily had from the publishers, and repeated matter, as well as all advertisements from non-subscribers, must be paid for at the rate of 10 cents per line.

Under the heading "Books for Sale," the charge to subscribers and non-subscribers is 10 cents per line for each insertion. No deduction for repeated matter.

Under the heading "Situations Wanted," subscribers are entitled to one free insertion of five lines. For repeated matter and advertisements of non-subscribers the charge is 10 cents per line.

All other small advertisements will be charged at the uniform rate of 10 cents per line. Eight words may be reckoned to the line.

Parties with whom we have no accounts must pay in advance, otherwise no notice will be taken of their communications.

Parties desiring to receive answers to their advertisements through this office must either call for them or enclose postage stamps with their orders for the insertion of such advertisements. In all cases we must have the full address of advertisers as a guarantee of good faith.

Houses that are willing to deal only on a cash-on-delivery basis will find it to their advantage to put after their firm-name the word [Cash].

BOOKS WANTED.

 In answering, please state edition, condition, and price, including postage or express charges.

 Write your wants plainly and on one side of the sheet only. Illegibly-written "wants" will be considered as not having been received. The "Publishers' Weekly" does not hold itself responsible for errors.

How to Hunt for a Book.

SOME booksellers think that the easiest way to hunt for a book is—to let their customers do it for them. When the latter do the hunting they generally take a book where they find it, and so some booksellers always lose a sale, and oftentimes a customer. These booksellers might, in many cases, be as willing as "Barkis" to do the hunting, but they lack the training, or the knowledge how to do it, or the proper tools.

In order to give some assistance in this direction The Publishers' Weekly, (59 Duane Street, New York,) has issued a volume entitled "THE PROFESSION OF BOOKSELLING," prepared by A. Growoll, its managing editor, in which such a bookseller as we have referred to above will find directions for hunting down a book, and what tools to use in doing it. Not only does it do this, but it undertakes to give reasonably full and practical information on a number of other subjects which is useful for a bookseller to know. There are, for instance, chapters on the arrangement and care of stock; how to insure against loss by fire; moving and "taking stock"; how to keep a stock of music; how to keep paper-bound books issued in series; how to keep newspapers, magazines, and books issued in parts, and other like subjects. The chapter on How to Keep a Circulating Library alone will save a dealer many headaches in helping him to set up such a department in his store, in selecting a stock of fiction for it, and in devising a scheme for lending books, etc.

For the beginner there are hints on preparatory training, on entering the profession, a course of reading, how to become useful in the store, how to learn stock, how to dust, and other things which he must know if he would become a successful bookseller's assistant. A competent authority—himself an experienced bookseller—says of the book that "the young bookseller can learn more by a thorough perusal of this book than he could through many years of active experience." Another, of the same kind, writes: "A wise employer will furnish this encyclopædia of information concerning the business of selling books free of cost to his clerks; because those who study it cannot help becoming more useful, and so more profitable to him who employs them."

"THE PROFESSION OF BOOKSELLING" will be in three large octavo parts, with illustrations, bound in boards, at $2.00 a part, net. Two volumes are now ready, each being complete in itself and containing a full index.

We suppose you have our other bookseller's aids—The Publishers' Weekly, "The American Catalogue," "The Annual Catalogue," "The Publishers' Trade List Annual," etc. If not, read our "Descriptive List of Bibliographical Publications," and see whether you can do without them. As soon might a carpenter work without a saw, a plane, or a chisel, as a bookseller without any of those enumerated above.

Bibliographical Publications.

For all American books as they appear, take THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY; for an hour's glance each month at the important books and magazine papers, take THE LITERARY NEWS; for library matters take THE LIBRARY JOURNAL; for magazine articles in general, consult THE ANNUAL LITERARY INDEX; for books in print or issued of late years, see the AMERICAN and ANNUAL CATALOGUES.
